REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. Claim 28 is allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art of record does not anticipate nor render obvious to one ordinary skilled in the art a reflective liquid crystal display device comprising a combination of various elements as claimed, more specifically, a combination of the followings: a light guide plate having a polarizing element stuck or adhered thereto on the side facing a reflection-type liquid crystal display panel, the polarizing element maintaining a predetermined air gap relative to the reflection-type liquid crystal display panel, a light-diffusing function imparted to the surface of the reflection-type liquid crystal display panel on the side facing the light guide plate, wherein the reflection-type liquid crystal display panel has a rough surface on the side facing the light guide plate, and a haze (H) defined as an index represented by a ratio of a diffusion transmission factor (Td) and a total light ray transmission factor (Tt) is given by:  $H[\%] = (Td/Tt) \times 100$ , the haze being less than 50%.

Yoshii ('934) discloses a reflective LCD device comprising a particular degree of light scattering (haze) at the outer surface of the substrate. However, Yoshii fails to disclose 'a combination of the followings: a light guide plate having a polarizing element stuck or adhered thereto on the side facing a reflection-type liquid crystal display panel, the polarizing element maintaining a predetermined air gap relative to the reflection-type liquid crystal display panel, a light-diffusing function imparted to the surface of the reflection-type liquid crystal display panel on the side facing the light guide plate, wherein the reflection-type liquid crystal display panel has a rough surface on the side facing the light guide plate, and a haze (H) defined as an index represented by a ratio of a diffusion transmission factor (Td) and a total light ray transmission factor (Tt) is given by:  $H[\%] = (Td/Tt) \times 100$ , the haze being less than 50%.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
